

Dual Language Resources

<https://www.duolingo.com/learn> (Developing Oral Language)

<https://www.pocoyo.com/> (Spanish Videos, Games, Activities)

<https://esp.brainpop.com/> (Science & SS Objectives in Spanish)

<http://www.noyo.com/spanish/> (Noya is a targeted vocabulary-building system for language learners)

http://www.readinga-z.com/more/highfreq/high\_freq\_span.html#Anchor-47857

This is the Spanish section of Reading A-Z which provides a collection of high frequency word books, bingo cards, and word lists in Spanish. With a paid subscription, teachers can download and print three levels of these great readers reinforcing target Spanish vocabulary.

<http://www.colorincolorado.org/> This free bilingual website is a wonderful resource for educators, ELL students, and their families. The information on this site is provided in English and Spanish. Webcasts, teacher materials, as well as research-based articles, focus on a variety of ELL topics.

<http://www.wordreference.com> This free on-line dictionary serves as a good reference when searching for word translations in multiple languages. Viewer can simply type a word and do a search in the chosen language. WordReference is also accessible through iPhone.